Description

Nissaki (North East): From its elevated position on the hillside, there are spectacular views sweeping over the sea. Chef included for breakfast and one meal per day, 6 days per week in summer.

Villa La Rocca features Corfu traditional style combined with contemporary country living. Large living spaces open out to covered terraces and pool, while the master bedroom opens out to a terrace and Mediterranean planting.

The property is on 2 floors, built around a private courtyard with a loggia overlooking an infinity pool and a spectacular round dining area with 180-degree views.

The main house comprises the reception/dining area, an elegant room with large, arched balcony doors opening onto the pool area together with three ensuite bedrooms. The modern kitchen, leading onto the covered terrace, has spectacular views south over the pool. All rooms have mosquito netting at doors, wifi, central air conditioning and underfloor heating.

There is boat hire availability nearby and the estate has a floating pontoon in high season to which guests have access for drop off and pick up.

Externally, there is a 10m freshwater infinity pool, a gas BBQ, as well as a table tennis table and garden lounging areas. Yoga platform and 2 paddle boards are also available and direct sea access (down a rocky path).
