Description

Lucca: A modern gem in the heart of the picturesque Tuscan countryside, bringing modern architecture and amenities together with a stunning natural location.

Upon arriving at this magnificent villa one is struck by the masterfulness with which it has been designed and built. Every aspect, from the private spa to the en suite bedrooms, has a modern and - above all - luxurious feel. This villa is particularly suitable if any members of the travelling party have mobility problems, as the ground-floor en suite bedroom and additional guest toilet has been designed to meet the necessary requirements, and of course there is a lift to the first floor.
