Overview

This is an exceptionally stylish Belle Epoque villa with 5 individually appointed bedrooms in a village location surrounded by gently sloping hills within easy access of Pisa, Volterra and San Gimignano, to name but a few renowned Tuscan destinations.

Description

Montelopio: Belle Epoque luxury family villa for 10+3 people with salt water pool and Jacuzzi, landscaped garden and magnificent panoramic views over the Tuscan countryside towards Volterra.

Imagine a villa in Tuscany: the verdant rolling hills, olive groves and grapevines. Youre dining alfresco in a loggia perched above it all, with age old wisteria framing the view. This 5 bedroom 19th century home has been lovingly restored by the owners, adding modern amenities while preserving the villas fine historic details.

This family villa invites connection and conversation; sit with friends by the pool, under the arbor, or inside under a fresco (yes, really). All thats missing is a glass of good Tuscan wine. Thankfully that can be found in Fabbrica, a small town with groceries, cafes, restaurants and a pharmacy within easy walking distance.

Tuscanys most important cultural centers are nearby. A trip to Volterra (25 km) is a must for any history buff. This Bronze Age settlement was one of the twelve cities of the Etruscan League - and remains a living museum of history, art, and architecture. You might fly into the nearest airport in Pisa, only 45 km away. Or if you're taking the train instead, you'll catch it in Pontedera (25 km), a city known for wine and chocolate production.
