Description

Boukari (South East): An ideal hillside location for this attractive villa with infinity pool and stunning sea views over the Ionian Sea, just 20 metres from a shingle beach and close to tavernas.

A quiet coastal lane gently winds its way past the little fishing village of Petriti to Boukari, a sleepy coastal hamlet with a narrow beach of smooth pebbles and shallow, azure waters. Running southwards from Messonghi this peaceful stretch of olive tree-clad coastline is dotted with a variety of family run tavernas, widely recognised for serving some of the tastiest seafood dishes on Corfu. This property enjoys a prime position to make the most of everything this appealing area has to offer. Built in an elevated location, crisp clean lines and fresh minimalist styling are the hallmarks of this striking, contemporary property.

Overview

From its elevated seafront position by the pretty coastal hamlet of Boukari in South Corfu, this family villa with infinity pool enjoys terrificviews over the Ioanian seascape,providing an excellent spot for a soothing holiday on the renowned Greek island. Changeover day is Monday

The sea, less than 20 metres away from the foot of the propertys sloping driveway, provides an appealing alternative to the swimming pool for refreshing dips throughout the day. A small strip of shingle beach directly opposite the villa gives easy access into the turquoise waters of the bay. A further highlight of this enviable location is being spoilt for choice at mealtimes with several tavernas, many highly recommended by the locals, just a short distance from the house. Two of the most well-known and respected eateries on the island, Fishermans Haunt and Boukari Fish Taverna are just 1km and 500 metres away respectively. Even closer to home the Akrogiali and Potomaki tavernas are both about 100 metres away. Home to all amenities (as well as a long sandy beach with seasonal water sports), vibrant Messonghi is a 12 minute drive yet seems a world away from the laid back, calming environs of this villa.
