Overlooking the hilly vineyards of Languedoc and the iconic silhouette of Pic Saint-Loup, this villa harmoniously combines Tuscan elegance with Provençal charm. Evoking the elegance of a Florentine residence, this 280m² villa stands on the edge of the village, offering absolute tranquility and exceptional panoramas. Ideally located near the Hérault, the Mediterranean beaches and a multitude of traditional villages, Villa Fontanès is the ideal starting point to discover the renowned gastronomy of the region, its exceptional wines and its magnificent natural landscapes.

Inside the villa – Space, comfort and elegance:

Immerse yourself in an atmosphere of discreet luxury, where the charm of the old blends with contemporary design. The vast living room, bathed in light thanks to its double east-west exposure, opens directly onto a large sunny terrace and an Italian garden. The interior, carefully arranged, combines antique furniture and design pieces for a timeless atmosphere.

The dining room can comfortably accommodate 8 people, while the adjacent fully-equipped kitchen includes four ovens (2 traditional, 1 steam, 1 microwave), an American style fridge/freezer and a large pantry with an extra fridge and facilities for the laundry.

The villa includes four large elegantly appointed bedrooms, each with a bathroom or private shower, air conditioning and high-end bedding worthy of the largest hotels. The ground floor suite has a bed of 180cm x 200 cm, a private terrace with stunning views of the Pic Saint-Loup and vineyards.

Living in the open air – Provençal lifestyle at its best.

Surrounded by a landscaped garden of 1,500m², Villa Fontanès offers an ideal setting to relax under the southern sun or bask in the shade. The saltwater pool (10m x 4.5 m x 1.75 m deep) invites you to cool off after a sunny afternoon, on one of the 8 deckchairs. Gather around the dining table under the umbrella to enjoy al fresco meals prepared at the Weber barbecue, or enjoy a glass of local wine in the outdoor lounge, for a moment of comfort and absolute calm.

For those who like to have fun, enjoy a game of pétanque, ping-pong or Scandinavian bowling are all available on site.
