

Podere in Chianti

Region: ITALY

Sleeps: 14 Bedrooms: 7 Bathrooms: 7

Overview

Lovingly restored in recent years, this enchanting 17th-century country estate provides guests with peace and relaxation in an idyllic Tuscan setting among the Chianti hills and valley.

Description

Siena: A stunning, fully renovated period country home with salt-water, heatable pool within a generous estate in Tuscany's Chianti region near Siena.

Found

amidst the breath-taking hills of the world-famous Chianti wine region, boasts two beautifully-renovated century structures: an authentic Tuscan farmhouse and a barn. It is the ideal home base for families with children, groups, and romantic escapists looking for a private retreat into the Tuscan countryside. The estate can accommodate ten guests in the main house and four guests in the barn. Both buildings feature master and junior suites with king-size beds. Eco-friendly and utterly divine, the property is powered with solar panel systems, using 100% renewable energy and rainwater harvesting.

Finely-crafted Tuscan antiques were sourced from around the region and refurbished, and include custom-made hand-carved wood furniture and fine artifacts: large mirrors, elegant tables, finely upholstered chairs and seating, ornate sideboards, and chandeliers. Each en suite bathroom has been outfitted with Italian Tuscan marble and travertine stone. Outside, a pergola-covered dining area and stone grill make the perfect setting for barbecues, private get-togethers, and celebrations.
